BACKYARD FOOD FORESTS

Learn how to create a beautiful and productive Garden using Permaculture Principles

Larry Saltzman specializes in Mediterranean Food Forests. He and his wife Linda have a 25-year-old Food Forest in Santa Barbara. He has spoken and written extensively on Food Forests. He co-founded the Santa Barbara Organic Garden Club and is past President of both the Permaculture Guild of Santa Barbara and the Channel Islands chapter of the California Rare Fruit Growers.

Soil Health is important in any garden setting, and Larry's introduction to Backyard Food Forests will be followed at 11am by a presentation on SOIL HEALTH and COMPOSTING, including vermicomposting, from Master Gardeners - Trudy Adair Verbais, Janet Rogers, and Hugh Kelly.
